JOB SEEKER SERVICES

THE HELP YOU NEED FOR THE JOB YOU WANT!

NCWorks Career Centers provide job-training programs and services to help you increase your skillset and obtain meaningful employment. No matter your circumstances or background, your career center can help you maximize your job search.

At each career center, you have free access to computers to search for job opportunities, along with access to job fairs and workshops that will help you connect with employers. You can find out how to earn your Career Readiness Certificate, a recognizable skills credential that facilitates job placement, retention, and advancement. You also have labor market information available to you to learn more about industries that interest you, what they pay, and how you can move up in those careers.
